Mr. HAYDEN, from the Committee on Rules and Administration, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. Res. 267]

The Committee on Rules and Administration, having under consideration the original resolution (S. Res. 267) authorizing an additional appropriation to enable the continuation of the study and investigation of crime and related problems, including law enforcement, in the District by the Committee on the District of Columbia, after consideration of same report favorably thereon and recommend that the resolution, as reported, be agreed to by the Senate.

This original resolution is supplemental to Senate Resolution 136, Eighty-second Congress, agreed to September 13, 1951, and Senate Resolution 264, Eighty-second Congress, agreed to January 24, 1952, giving the Senate Committee on the District of Columbia full powers to inquire into crime and its prevention within the District of Columbia and to report to the Senate its findings as a basis for necessary legislation.

Senate Resolution 136 set up this inquiry with an original authorization of $25,000 and gave to the Subcommittee of the Committee on the District of Columbia Investigating Crime and Law Enforcement in the District until January 31, 1952, to report the results of its investigations. Senate Resolution 264 extended the inquiry for an additional month, to February 29, 1952, and provided a supplemental sum of $15,000 to this subcommittee for the same purposes.

The present resolution rescinds Senate Resolution 264 but extends the same inquiry from February 1 to June 30, 1952, and authorizes $61,200 for expenditure by the Subcommittee Investigating Crime and Law Enforcement in the District of Columbia in addition to any unexpended balances coming over under Senate Resolution 136.

The date of June 30, 1952, is designated as the time for the filing of the subcommittee's final report. All inquiries and investigations of the subcommittee are to end a month earlier, or by May 31, 1952.

A proposed monthly budget through June 30, 1952, in the total amount of $61,200, submitted by the chairman of the Committee on the District of Columbia and approved by your committee, follows:
